1. Definitions

The following expressions shall (unless the context demands otherwise) have the following representative meanings.

- a) "the lessor" means Foiled Again Fencing Club and includes its servants and agents.
- b) "the Hirer" means the company, firm, person(s), corporation or public authority on hire and includes their representatives.
- c) "equipment" means all clothing, weapons, electrical accessories hired from the lessor.

- 2. Both the Hirer and the Lessor have inspected the equipment prior to signing it out and confirm that all equipment is free from major defects and is in a safe condition to be used.
- 3. All equipment shall be returned to Foiled Again Fencing Club by the first club session following the Event or Competition either the next Thursday or Saturday.
- 4. All damage to or accidents involving equipment belonging to Foiled Again Fencing Club should be brought to the attention of a club official with 24hrs of the incident.
- 5. Items which are lost whilst on hire the Hirer will be liable for 80% of the replacement cost. Items which are broken whilst on hire the Hirer will be liable for 50% of the replacement cost.
- 6. Upon return both the Hirer and the Lessor will inspect the equipment prior to signing it into club stock and thus confirming that the equipment is free from major defects and in a safe condition to use. Any equipment which is missing or damaged is to be logged below, and duly marked on the receipt as so.

I, the Hirer, have read and understood the above terms and conditions which are applicable for ordering Fencing Equipment through the Foiled Again Fencing Club. I agree to abide by these terms and conditions.
